SLIGHTLY STRONG MINDED.—One Catherine

Judge Forence, one of Cincinnati's pioneers, died in that city on Monday. He settled in Cincinnati as early as 1809, and might well be-considered one of the pioneers.

Stephen L. Hayman, an ex-police officer of Cincinnati, committed suicide in that city on Sunday night, by swallowing two ounces of laudanum.

So many (four or five) dead bodies have been found near Jefferson Barracks, Mo., that some of the St. Louis papers begin to think that perhaps the soldiers are the murderers.

STATION OF ACTORS.—We are informed that John Bates, manager of the Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis Theatres, has imported four actors and actresses, engaged for his Eng-apolis promises to be the greatest gathering

Mr. A. C. Card, concerning whom so much has been said since last Saturday, has been recovered. If so, we presume he is still in The St. Catharine Post says the Welland as Thorold. This, we believe, is the first thing the kind on the continent of America, and per-

It turns out that the story of the New Express, charging the Rev. Mr. Hughes of Connecticut, with refusing to marry a couple, because the bridegroom would not pay for that service, is a gross falsehood; the man being that the priest had fair grounds

Cholera has broken out along the Monongahela deaths had occurred upon the latest date, and nection with the inhabitants of the towns

CALIFORNIA LAND SPECULATOR.—It is current-ed that Dr. Taylor, of Grace Church, a city, has fallen into the popular error of divine of that vicinity, and not with his temporaries of $6000 per annum, and $8000 more in presents and fees, engaged in land speculations and lost a temporal war.

HONOLULU.—The Honolulu papers report the harvest. Maui wheat was in fine order, and it was thought that native flour would rule at prices lower than those of the Boston market. The King had dissolved the Legislature in a rather summary manner, owing to a difficulty between the two houses on the subject of passing a bill of government supply. He justifies the act in a proclamation to the people. The local journals support the claims of Honolulu as a whaling station over those of San Francisco, in opposition to Governor Bigler, of California.

THE FUND FOR THE YELLOW FEVER SUFFERERS.
The contributions in aid of the sufferers at Norfolk and Portsmouth are swelled to a considerable amount, but it will all be required, and probably a great deal more. The following are the amounts contributed, as near as can be ascertained: Baltimore, $10,278; New York, $6,500; Philadelphia, $7,000; Richmond, $4,000; Petersburgh, $3,000; Fredericksburg, $7,000; Savannah, $2,000; Norfolk, $5,000; Washington, $2,000; Lynchburg, $1,000; Philadelphia Navy Yard, $2,200; Charleston Navy Yard, $1,500; other sources, $2,000. Total, $45,787.

THE ESCAPED NUN.—About a month ago, we received from the publisher a copy of this new Know-Nothing book. We tried to read it—managed to pick our way through thirty or forty pages, it lay down in despair. It is one of the trashy, inconsistent and self-contradicting ever took up—a long sight worse than Tom's Cabin. The author was ashamed to give any name for himself or any locality or any dates—speaks of Rev. —— Bishop — Any man or boy of common sense, not blind with prejudice, would not hesitate to pronounce the thing a lie, from one end to the other. Fiction, probably we can read, but lies, no.

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY.—We have received this Monthly for September from the publishers. The articles—"Amazons of South America" and "Life among the Mormons," are well worth perusing.— The scraps of poetry and songs published as original, or selected, contain precious little of interest or merit—we do not refer to the scraps in the opening article, but in the body of the work. The review of Thackeray's new book, "The Newcomes," is written in agreeable style. "Rachel," is a sketch of this great actress. To those who have been interested in this woman's advent to our country, the article will prove acceptable. The writer does not seem to have any confidence in her as a woman, but believes her devoid of virtue—in fact a perfect rascal. Ristori, he concludes, as a woman, to the very opposite of Rachel; to have a virtuous soul. "Living in the Country" is a pleasant sketch. The present number is well worth the price.

Police Court.

HON. GEO. W. JOHNSTON, JUDGE.

TUESDAY, August 28, 1855.

Mary O'Neil, drunk and disorderly. Bailiffs $200 for three months.

Wm. Kerr and West for stealing muskets from the American Eagle Fire Company. Each held to keep the peace in $300 for six months.

John Hein, accused of stealing three trunks from Catherine Gilligan. Discharged.

John Gilligan, drunk and disorderly. Bail in $100 for three months.

Jane MacManus, charged with passing $1 bogus note on a German grocery keeper.

DEATH OF SAMUEL MERRILL.—Died at Indianapolis on Friday, August 24th, Samuel Merrill, Esq., in the 63d year of his age. He was a native of Vermont, and a graduate of Dartmouth College. He settled at Veray, Ind., about the year 1820. He was elected Treasurer of State in 1822, which office he held for twelve years, when he was chosen President of the State Bank of Indiana, which office he held for ten years. He discharged all his public duties with marked ability and fidelity.
The Indianapolis Journal of Saturday, well remarks of the deceased:

"He was a man of strict probity, and during a lifetime spent in directing and disposing of vast sums of money, his honesty has never been impeached. Such men, so pure in character and highly endowed in intellect, are the real glory of a State. Would there were more."

COMMERCE IN THE GULF OF MEXICO.—Under this heading the New Orleans Picayune, of the 23d, has an interesting article in favor of encouraging trade with the South American States.
It is a trade well worth seeking, and one which we at one time did hope Louisville might by possibility enjoy to some extent. To that end, we did, some two or three years ago, advocate a railroad from this city to Knoxville, then to connect with Charleston, being the nearest Atlantic seaport; from which point it were no difficult undertaking to establish a line of packets to the principal ports of South America on the Atlantic coast.

The valley of the Amazon will prove of amazing fertility, and will support a trade beyond all calculation. As usual, New York has taken the lead; the Legislature of the State having chartered a company with a capital of two millions, by whom a liberal grant has been obtained from the government of New Grenada. This company have turned their attention to opening up the resources of New Grenada; and if the trade with that country not rea-pable, the principal Columbian, of yesterday, says that very little rain falls in that city on Sunday and Monday, and that business was duller on Monday than on Sunday; we can chronicle our neighbor's good if not our own, but we hope soon to give news of this part of the world.

THANKS.—Our friends of the fine steamer Northernner have our thanks for manifest, memorandum, and St.
Louis papers of the 26th inst.

HISTORIC HALL TO-NIGHT.—To-night the Louisville Dramatic Association give their first performance, as advertised. To say that their entertainment will be well worth attending were not to say enough. We are satisfied that every playgoer in the city will be pleased with their rendering of Don Cesare de Bazan—delighted with the quarrel scene between Casius and Brutus, and convinced with laughter over Bombastes Furioso.
We do not fear but that each one will acquit himself and herself with a great deal of credit. We expect to see the house crowded, especially as we have had no amusements for a long time. The price of admission is only half a dollar. Who will stay away?

MUSICAL AND OPERATIC GOSSIP.—The following gossip or items are condensed from that excellent semi-monthly, the N. Y. Musical Review and Gazette, published by the Mason Bros:

Should Meyerbeer live long enough, it is supposed possible he may favor the world with an Oratorio. He was applied to in 1851; and has at last commenced thinking about it—will perhaps have it ready by the close of the present century.

We find in the London correspondence the following tart remarks in reference to Meyerbeer:—

"Meyerbeer has science, his 'savoir faire,' has 400,000 francs per annum, but has no heart, (alluding to his music,) there is no heart in it, and therefore it does not touch the heart; it is all manufactured music—not spontaneous, all calculation: Like it, who can? We admire the man's knowledge, but deplore the abuse of it. We shall however go and hear this (Meyerbeer) 'Star of the North,' and conscientiously report."

Mad. Grisi has made her last appearance in London in the "Huguenots." The Atheneum hopes it will prove her last appearance.

Parodi has come to this country again, having been in Italy since her first visit, and will give concerts with Mr. and Mrs. Strakosch.

Kate Hayes, after great success in Calcutta, has returned to Australia.

Wagner, the composer, is quietly resting at Zurich.

A glance at the repertory of the royal opera in Berlin for the season, (from September 1854 to July 1855,) shows that of 132 representations, 77 were of the works of German composers—Weber's "Oberon" being performed eleven times. Aubert's "Masaniello" was given ten times; Mozart's "Don Juan" six times, and his "Marriage of Figaro" four times; Meyerbeer's "Huguenots" six times, and his "Prophet" five times. The late Mad. de Girardin described the well-known contralto, Mad. Albini, who is at present exciting the Parisians in the "Prophet," as "an elephant that had swallowed a nightingale."
